

Darren Bosch

Darren equips C-Suite leaders to accelerate organizational performance by aligning people, purpose, and direction. In doing so, they build flourishing workplaces, creating competitive advantage through their teams.

As an experienced business owner, consultant, and facilitator, he specializes in leadership and organizational development building thriving teams. Darren has led senior management teams working through their purpose, developing their strategic direction and plan, building sales, enhancing communication, clarity, team alignment and interpersonal effectiveness.

He equips leaders in expanding their toolkits emphasizing awareness, mind-set, and personal leadership as foundational to championing high-performance teams.

As a Certified Leadership Coach, he helps leaders work through their leadership style, purpose, communication and work-life balance. He does that with personal care and thoughtful challenge to empower executives for better results.

Darren blesses business leaders from a conviction of an ancient Proverb, "Be sure to know the condition of your flocks and pay special attention to your herds". That's why he finds joy in championing others so they too can experience a better way – and not have to do it alone.

Darren and his wife have four children and live near Dundas, Ontario.

“Darren provided practical help as he improved our process and results. He equipped and empowered our team with a smarter approach that’s reduced waste, increased ease, executed in a more profitable way – all with more clarity and confidence.

He did that with both fun and rigour ensuring we were aligned as a team - reinvigorating our purpose to impact the lives others by doing more good.”

-Andrew Westrik, Senior Manager